

SBU CHAPTER OF DELTA MU DELTA INDUCTS 18 STUDENTS

BOLIVAR, Mo. – Southwest Baptist University's Zeta Kappa chapter of the Delta Mu Delta international honor society in business inducted 18 new members on Feb. 22, during a banquet ceremony at McClelland Dining Hall on the Bolivar campus.

Delta Mu Delta is an international honor society established to recognize and reward superior scholastic achievement of students in business administration. The society was founded by a dean from Harvard University and four professors from Yale University and New York University in November 1913. Membership is by invitation only and is based upon the student's grade point average (minimum of 3.25), class rank (upper 20 percent) and individual character.

The 2020-21 Zeta Kappa student officers are Alexis Stout, president, and Tyler Eads, secretary/treasurer. Dr. Angela Brown-Peterson, associate professor of business, is a member and serves as faculty adviser.

The new inductees of the Zeta Kappa chapter of the Delta Mu Delta honor society are:

- Cameron Altena, junior marketing major from Springfield
- Tyler Burnett, junior computational finance major from Wildwood
- Ryan Carmack, junior economics/finance major from Springfield
- Emma Ezzell '20, MBA student from Oregon
- Gabrielle Ginnings, junior accounting major from Wheatland
- Abby Henson, junior management major from Pleasant Hope
- Laura Ionita '20, MBA student from Bolivar
- Terry Jeffries, MBA student from Arlington, Texas
- Nathan MacLaughlin, junior accounting and economics/finance major from Springfield
- Andrew Masters, junior digital marketing and public relations major from Villa Ridge
- Garrett Morey, junior economics/finance major from Lamar
- Sheena Nichol '20, MBA student from Bolivar
- Elise Ridenour, junior accounting major from Monett
- Cassidy Sicher, MBA student from Buffalo
- Ryan Skeens '20, MBA student from Lebanon
- Logan Sorrell '20, MBA student from Galena
- Drew Wagner '20, MBA student from Aurora, Ill.
- Jason Williams '14, MBA student from Nixa

For more information, contact Angela Brown-Peterson, associate professor of business, at (417) 328-1754 or abrownpeterson@SBUuniv.edu.

*Published: 3-4-2021