

SBU APPLIED VOICE STUDENTS TO PRESENT RECITAL NOV. 5

BOLIVAR, Mo. – Southwest Baptist University’s Applied Voice students will present Liederabend (an evening of music) at 3:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 5 in Meyer Recital Hall on the Bolivar campus.

Students will present two song cycles by Robert Schumann. The ladies will be singing the song cycle “Frauenliebe und Leben,” while the gentlemen will be singing the cycle “Dichterliebe.”

The performance is free and open to the public, and also available via livestream at: <https://sbuniv.info/voice21>.

For more information about SBU’s music department, call (417) 328-1644.

*Published: 11-3-2021